

The Fair List, UK activity for the awards event IATEFL conference Birmingham, 2016

Are the following statements true or false?

- 1. The women's Oxford and Cambridge boat race is along a shorter, easier course than the men's race.
- 2. In 2015 the jockey of the racehorse that won both the Aintree and the Cheltenham hunter chase was a woman.
- 3. Women are barred from three Open golf clubs in the UK.
- 4. A wife was sold for a pound at a UK market in the twentieth century.
- 5. England's football team made it through the qualifying rounds of the World Cup in 2015.
- 6. There are more men called John at the head of FTSE 100 companies than women of any name.
- 7. Women in the UK now have their own political party.
- 8. England's cricket team won the ashes in 2014.
- 9. Women competing at the Wimbledon tennis competition are not allowed to wear shorts but must wear dresses or skirts.
- 10. 30% of all university professors in the UK are women.
- 11. Succession to the British throne is no longer by primogeniture but goes to the oldest child regardless of gender.

(Woodward, 2016)